A Message from Birch Knoll...

Some Wellvillians got together to put out the big dock and swimming lines last weekend and the beach began to take shape. Kathy Rowe supervised the operation as no one else...along with some fresh shrub trimming and beach raking, the beachfront is now something the Big Kahuna would be proud of!!!

Debbie Moylan organized a Flag Raising on the 4th of July that gave us a chance to thank our Wellville veterans for their service to our Great Country!

The Saturday Evening Scoop was a big hit as people got to see who was at camp, have some ice cream and catch up on who was having babies! A big thank you to Michelle Blake and Kim Kelly for taking on the task of dishing out the refreshing ice cream and delicious toppings. So nice to see familiar faces and some who returned for some rest, relaxation and rekindling of friendships. I would also like to thank Joan Rivard for graciously volunteering to host the first Monday Morning Coffee Hour after the flag raising event. It was a nice feeling to sit out on her deck and chit chat about family members and the camp kids having kids! Sorry, no pics of these last 2 events but I'm sure someone must have taken a few. Ask around and maybe they'll share.

Diane and I are hoping that the painters get our deck finished so that we can host the second Monday Morning Coffee Hour. We'll keep you posted. Love y'all!!!! (Practicing for Southern Retirement!)

Gage told me he got to peak behind the curtain when he assisted Kathy with swimming lessons... Kathy let him know why she did some things the way she did... a whole new perspective for him (she tricked us).
